Ketchikan: Salmon fishing capital of the world. This favorite port of call boasts an outside museum of native art that is considered the largest collection of totem poles in the world. Ketchikan is recognized as a top 100 arts community.

Juneau: This beautiful Alaskan capital is just 13 miles from the majestic Mendenhall Glacier and enjoys views of Juneau Icefield, Lynn Canal, and Stephens Passage. Nearby Admiralty Island has the world's highest concentration of brown bears. Enjoy an optional Alaskan Salmon Bake.

Skagway: Called the "Gateway to the Klondike", this site is preserved as a national historic park and has retained the flavor of the boomtown Gold Rush days. It has one of the oldest narrow-gauge railroads in existence. Walk along the wooden sidewalks of this historic 1890's frontier town at the foot of the famous Chilkoot Trail.

Glacier Bay: This spectacular national park displays snow-and ice-covered mountain peaks, nine narrow fjords, coastal islands, harbors, and numerous glaciers that extend to tidewater. The park's diverse wildlife includes colonies of seabirds, migrating geese, whales, sea lions, eagles and bears.

College Fjord: Tucked into the northwest corner of Prince William Sound, College Fjord has a collection of over a dozen glaciers (one is 2-1/2 miles wide), named after Ivy League colleges. This site is known by Alaskans to have some of the best glacier viewing in the state.

Mt. McKinley: Here you'll settle in with Denali never far from view. Sit and gaze at the majesty of "The Great One" from the lodge's treehouse designed and built by Pete Nelson of Animal Planet's Treehouse Masters.

Denali: The Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge at the doorstep of Denali National Park. Enjoy the spectacular main lodge, river view deck and Princess Village with the popular Christmas cottage and sugar shack.

Fairbanks: A sternwheeler Riverboat Cruise down the Chena River is included in Fairbanks. You will get to experience Gold Rush history, Native culture and colorful Alaska lifestyle of bush pilots, dog sledgers and Native artisans. Your trip ends with a morning flight home from Fairbanks.
