Thursday – May 18 SALT LAKE CITY * WASHINGTON D.C.

After flying to our nation's capital, we visit the Iwo Jima Marine's Memorial. After dinner on your own we visit the Korean and Vietnam War Memorials. We also visit the Lincoln Memorial as we pay tribute to our great civil war president. Our hotel for the next three nights is the lovely Alexandria Holiday Inn.

Friday – May 19 WASHINGTON D.C.

Your Washington D.C. tour this morning begins at the Washington Monument, dedicated to our first president and the "Father of our Country." Then an opportunity for photos at the White House and U.S. Capitol, plus a visit to the impressive WWII Memorial. After a lunch break in Downtown D.C., we visit the Smithsonian Museums and the National Art Gallery where you have time to explore and enjoy on your own. This evening you'll enjoy a wonderful welcome dinner with your traveling companions. (B,D)

Saturday – May 20 WASHINGTON D.C.

As a special bonus for 2023, today is an extra day in Washington D.C. You'll have time to visit Ford's Theater, the National Archives to see the Declaration of Independence, the Ulysses S. Grant Memorial, Historic Union Station plus additional appreciated time at the Smithsonian and Holocaust Museums. After a dinner break, enjoy an illumination tour of the famous Washington monuments. You'll enjoy this extra day in D.C. (B)

Sunday – May 21 WASHINGTON D.C. * MOUNT VERNON * WILLIAMSBURG

This morning you visit Arlington Cemetery and the Kennedy gravesites. The Changing of the Guard at The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier is very impressive. After lunch we visit the inspiring riverside F.D.R. and Jefferson Memorials. This afternoon we travel to Mt. Vernon, George Washington's restored home and then it's on to Colonial Williamsburg where we enjoy a two-night stay.

(B,D)

Monday – May 22 WILLIAMSBURG * YORKTOWN * JAMESTOWN

Our first stop this morning is at Yorktown Historical Battlefield, the site where the British troops surrendered to George Washington and the Continental Army in 1781, bringing the successful end to the American Revolution. Next, we'll visit nearby Jamestown Settlement and tour the first permanent English settlement in the New World. Then we're off to historic Colonial Williamsburg for free time on your own. Stroll down its quaint streets, browse through historic trade shops and drop in at Raleigh Tavern, the meeting place of Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry and other Patriots. You'll enjoy Colonial Williamsburg.

(B)

Tuesday – May 23 WILLIAMSBURG * MONTICELLO * SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Your tour begins today in Richmond, Virginia's capital and once the Capitol of the Confederacy. Visit St. John's Church, where Patrick Henry proclaimed, "Give me liberty or give me death." After a visit to Richmond we tour Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's estate and gravesite, with its beautiful gardens and mansion designed by Jefferson himself. Enjoy photo stops and panoramic vistas in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley where we stay the night. This area was often referred to as the "bread basket of the Confederacy".

(B)

Wednesday – May 24 SHENANDOAH VALLEY * HARPERS FERRY * GETTYSBURG

Today, we follow much the same route as Lee's army during the invasion of Pennsylvania. We visit Harpers Ferry, where John Brown and his "army of liberation" staged their fateful raid on the U.S. arsenal. Continue across Maryland to Gettysburg National Military Park. Our tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield this afternoon will help us better understand the significance of the Civil War battle that took place here during the first three days of July, 1863. You will feel as though you are on hallowed ground. This evening, enjoy a buffet style dinner.

(B,D)

Thursday – May 25 GETTYSBURG * VALLEY FORGE * PHILADELPHIA

This morning travel through beautiful Lancaster County. While here we visit Amish Farm Country and enjoy lunch at an Amish restaurant. After lunch we stop at Valley Forge where the Continental Army encamped during the winter of 1777. Of all the places associated with our War of Independence, perhaps none has come to symbolize perseverance and sacrifice more than Valley Forge. Our hotel tonight is located right across the street from the King of Prussia Mall, the second largest mall in America. Enjoy free time at the many shops and restaurants.

(B,L)

Friday – May 26 PHILADELPHIA * SALT LAKE CITY

Welcome to Historic Philadelphia, where in 1776 colonial representatives struggled with the choices and consequences of changing a country, a government and a way of life. At Independence Hall, our park ranger guide will describe in detail what took place in this building - the debate for national independence! The events that led to the formation of the United States of America will unfold before our eyes as we see the Liberty Bell, Betsy Ross's home, Christchurch and Cemetery where Ben Franklin is buried, Washington Square and Franklin Court. Now after a great tour, a short transfer to the airport for your return flight home with increased appreciation for your country and freedoms.
