TUACAHN & THE UTAH SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

Disney's HERCULES

Disney's Hercules, the tale of the legendary hero of Greek mythology, comes roaring to life in this thrilling musical adventure filled with gods, monsters, heroes, and heart. Inspired by Disney's beloved animated film, this larger-than-life production brings the power and humor of ancient Greece to the stage, with a soaring score by Alan Menken and David Zippel and a story about discovering that true strength comes from within.

Born with the strength of a god but raised among mortals, Hercules has always struggled to understand where he belongs. When he discovers the truth about his extraordinary heritage, he sets out on a journey to become the hero he was destined to be. But becoming a true hero proves to be about far more than physical strength. With the guidance of his wise-cracking mentor Phil, the support of the unforgettable Muses, and the help, and complications, of the courageous Meg, Hercules must face the forces of the Underworld and the cunning god Hades, who has plans of his own for Olympus.

THE PRINCE OF EGYPT

The Prince of Egypt, the sweeping musical based on the beloved DreamWorks Animation film, brings one of the most powerful stories ever told to life on the Tuacahn stage. Set against the wonders of ancient Egypt, this epic tale explores brotherhood, freedom, faith, identity, and the courage it takes to follow a destiny that can change the world.

Moses and Ramses are raised together as brothers in the splendor of Pharaoh's palace, seemingly destined to share a life of privilege and power. But a secret from Moses' past changes everything. When Moses discovers that he is a Hebrew, he is forced to confront the truth of his identity and the suffering of the people he was born to lead. As Ramses assumes his place as Pharaoh, the brothers find themselves on opposite sides of a conflict that will test their loyalty, their faith, and the bond they once shared.

THE DROWSY CHAPERONE

at the Utah Shakespeare Festival

A love letter to golden-age musicals, The Drowsy Chaperone bursts with tap-dancing joy, witty parody, and infectious heart. As a reclusive musical theatre fan drops the needle on his favorite record, the show springs to life in his apartment—complete with glamorous stars, mistaken identities, and nonstop laughter. Equal parts satire and celebration, it's an irresistible valentine to the magic of theatre.

 Optional show at Tuacahn **

HAIRSPRAY

$80.00 per person, including round-trip transportation.

Hairspray, the big, bold musical that won eight Tony Awards including Best Musical, is bursting onto the Tuacahn stage with irresistible music, outrageous style, and a message that is as powerful today as ever. Set in 1962 Baltimore, this high-energy celebration of individuality, inclusion, and standing up for what is right proves that sometimes the smallest voice can make the biggest difference.
